

Father's day will be difficult this year.
I will be thinking of you and
send you warm thoughts.

A serene landscape photograph of a sunset over a mountain range. The sun is a small, bright white circle just above the horizon, casting long, soft rays of light across the sky. The sky transitions from a deep orange near the horizon to a pale, hazy blue at the top. The mountains below are silhouetted in various shades of blue and purple, creating a sense of depth and tranquility.

Father's day will be hard this year.
send you warm thoughts.
